

Ardis Sundberg, 72

7-2-93

Mrs. Edwin (Ardis) Sundberg, 72, Groton, died at St. Luke's Midland Regional Medical Center, Aberdeen, Sunday, June 27, 1993.

Her funeral was Wednesday, June 30, 1993 at the Emmanuel Lutheran Church, Groton, with the Rev. Anne Maldoon officiating. Burial was in the Groton Union Cemetery. There was a prayer service at the Paetznick-Garness Funeral Chapel, Tuesday.

Ardis Paulson was born February 10, 1921 to Sidney and Hatvig Rose (Krenz) Paulson at Pierpont. She grew up in the Pierpont area, and graduated from Pierpont High School in 1939. She attended Northern Normal, and taught in a rural school in the Pierpont area for three years.

She married Edwin O. Sundberg, November 27, 1941 at Pierpont. Following his military discharge in 1945, they moved to the Groton area, where they farmed and operated a trucking business. They retired in 1984.

She was a member of the Emmanuel Lutheran Church, Groton, and was active in various church groups. She was a member of the American Legion Auxiliary, Groton. She took an active part in the family business and was a qualified truck driver. She loved to sew and fish.

She is survived by her husband, Edwin, Groton; two sons, Paul E. Sundberg, Westminster, Colo., and Steve L. Sundberg, Bismarck, N.D.; two sisters, Mrs. Lawrence (Annabeth) Rohwer, Groton, and Mrs. George (Helen Mae) Anderson, Minneapolis; and two grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents.

Honorary casketbearers were Mildred Zoellner, Imo Jeanne Oliver, Mildred Erdmann, Marian Raines, Margaret Bennett, Margaret Larsen, Pat Larson, Sue Felkey, Rose Waage, Eleanor Hall, Marion Mydland and Darlene Jones.

Casketbearers were Allan Weismantel, Merle Harder, Howard Felkey, John Rohwer, Dennis A. Larson, Donald Waage, Garth Anderson, John Windorski.

The organist was Kathy Knudsen and the soloist was Gene Brolin. The usher was Homer Mydland.